

הקדוש שני is coming up, and in the זכות of our תפילות, our תשובה, and all the חסד that we try to do, may רחמנות have ברוך on us and bring מצות צדקנו, so that we'll be able to bring the פסח קרבן on שני פסח.

By the הגדה, before we eat the פּוֹרֶךְ sandwich, we quote the pasuk: עַל מַצּוֹת וּמַרְרוֹת יֹאכְלֶהוּ. But this pasuk is not from פרשת בא, where the original commandment of פסח קרבן is given. It actually comes from פרשת בא, and it's not referring to the פסח קרבן of ניסן - it's referring to שני פסח. In פרשת בא the pasuk says (12:8): וּמַצּוֹת עַל מַרְרוֹת יֹאכְלֶהוּ.

And as Casey said - don't just take my word for it - you can look it up and see for yourself. The version we say at the seder, עַל מַצּוֹת וּמַרְרוֹת יֹאכְלֶהוּ, is specifically talking about שני פסח.

Why is that the version quoted in the הגדה?

Because we're sitting here in גלות, unable to bring the פסח קרבן, and we're hoping that הקדוש ברוך הוא will find favor in our עבודה. So when we say this pasuk at the seder, it's not just about what was - it's also a tefillah for what could be. That by the time שני פסח arrives, we should be זוכה, as we just said, to celebrate פסח properly, in אמן, במהרה בימינו, ירושלים עיר הקודש.
